ABOUT

North Seattle College is a 2 year college which rests on 62 acres of land in Seattle, Washington in the Northgate District. This college has a long history of not only serving the local community but also welcoming students from over 50 international countries.

The college has a wellness center on campus where students wanting to stay in shape, play sports or drop in for an aerobics class can do so here. Students can also visit the schools art gallery, or participate in The Seattle Symphonic Band. NSC has the popular "Running Start" program which allows high school juniors and seniors to dual-enroll and earn credit for both high school and college. They have many partnerships with fine universities including Eastern Washington University, Washington State University, and Western Washington University.

LOCATION

North Seattle College is just 5 miles from downtown Seattle in the safe, suburban Northgate district. Students enjoy easy access to enjoy the city's many fine eateries, movie theaters and activities. The many public transportation options such as buses, ferries and water taxis make it easy for people to travel without a car.

Residents can take advantage of Seattle's parks and recreation system, boasting five environmental learning centers with two outdoor pools, eight indoor pools and eight beaches and wading pools. Seattle enjoys a mild climate year-round which offers ample opportunities for numerous outdoor recreational activities.
