CURRICULUM

The goals of our educational program are to enable our students to discover truth, develop a Christ-like character and a personal relationship with God. In an effort to ensure a curriculum of excellence, Sonrise chooses to use a variety of publishers, both Christian and secular, to accomplish that goal. Textbooks are carefully and prayerfully chosen by a team of teachers and principals. A textbook is used only after it has shown its academic value and appropriateness in regards to our conservative Christian heritage. Secular texts are always taught from a biblical perspective, giving a teacher the chance to teach the students how to discern truth from error. Some of our publishers include: Saxon, Spalding, ACSI, McMillan-McGraw Hill, ABeka, SRA-McGraw Hill, Harcourt-Brace, and Harding University.
